The Underwater Council of British Columbia (UCBC) is incorporated as a non-profit society under the British Columbia Society Act. Its purpose and mandate is to promote safe recreational scuba diving, environmental protection and to act as the unified voice of recreational divers in British Columbia. The UCBC has no paid employees and operates solely with volunteer support and donations.

Our Membership is Now Free

The UCBC thanks you for your support by becoming a member and adding your voice to the growing community of divers in BC. A stronger voice can have a greater impact on the issues and legislation affecting our community.
